

Corporate Governance Statement

The Board of Directors of Island Pharmaceuticals Limited (Island or the Company) ABN 46 641 183 842 is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company. The Board guides and monitors the Company's business on behalf of its shareholders. The Board adopted its Corporate Governance Plan on 23 October 2020 and the Company listed on the ASX on 13 April 2021.

The Company and its Board continue to be fully committed to achieving and demonstrating the highest standards of accountability and transparency in their reporting and see the continued development of the Company's corporate governance policies and practices as fundamental to the Company's successful growth.

To the extent applicable, in light of the Company's size and nature, the Board has adopted the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Fourth Edition) as published by ASX Corporate Governance Council (Recommendations). However, the Board also recognises that full adoption of the Recommendations may not be practical or provide the optimal result given the particular circumstances of the Company.

The Company's full Corporate Governance Plan is available from the Company's website at <https://www.islandpharmaceuticals.com/site/about/corporate-governance>. Any references to various Charters or Policies within the statement below, are references to the Corporate Governance Plan. Information published on the Company's website includes a copy of this corporate governance statement.

This Corporate Governance Statement was approved by the Board of Directors, is current as at 26 August 2021 and has been authorised for released.

1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Remuneration and Nomination Committee in accordance with the Performance Evaluation Policy is responsible for the performance evaluation of individual Directors on an annual basis. To assist in this process, an independent adviser may be used. The Company will disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken. A performance evaluation of the individual Directors was not conducted during the reporting period due to the Company not having commenced significant operations until post listing on the ASX. However, KPIs for the Executive Chairman and Managing Director have been set by the Remuneration and Nomination Committee for the 2022 financial year.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Remuneration and Nomination Committee in accordance with the Performance Evaluation Policy is responsible for the performance evaluation of senior executives on an annual basis. The Company will disclose in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation of the senior executive team was undertaken. Currently, the only senior executives of the Company are the Chairman and the Managing Director and disclosure of their assessment is set out in 1.6 above.
Principle 2: Structure the Board to be effective add value The board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates, to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Yes	The Board has appointed a Remuneration and Nomination Committee to oversee the selection and appointment practices of the Company. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is governed by both the Remuneration Committee Charter and Nomination Committee Charter. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee consists of three Directors, being Anna Lavelle, Paul MacLeman and Albert Hansen. The Committee is chaired by Anna Lavelle, who is the only independent Director on the Committee. The Board considers that the composition of the Committee is suitable at this point in time in the Company's development. The number of times the Committee met during the reporting period is disclosed in the Annual Report.

2.2	A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Yes	The Company has in place a Board Skills Matrix setting out the mix of skills that the Board currently has and is looking to achieve in its membership. A summary of the Skills Matrix is available on the Company's website at https://www.islandpharmaceuticals.com/site/about/corporate-governance
2.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position or relationship of the type described in box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	The Board considers that a Director is an independent director where that Director is free of any interest, position, association or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect his or her capacity to bring an independent judgment to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders generally. When determining the independence of a Director, the Board also takes into account the factors relevant to assessing the independence of a Director listed in Box 2.3 of the Recommendations. The Directors considered by the Board to be independent are David Brookes and Anna Lavelle. The following Directors non-executive directors are considered by the Board to not be independent: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Executive Chairman, Paul MacLeman, because of his executive role with the Company; • Managing Director and CEO, David Foster, because of his executive role with the Company and by virtue of being a substantial shareholder of the Company; and • Non-Executive Director, Albert Hansen, by virtue of being a substantial shareholder of the Company. The details of the Directors' and their length of service is as follows: Paul MacLeman Executive Chairman (appointed 25/05/2020) David Foster Managing Director (appointed 01/10/2020) David Brookes Non-Executive Director (appointed 01/10/2020) Albert Hansen Non-Executive Director (appointed 01/10/2020) Anna Lavelle Non-Executive Director (appointed 01/10/2020)
2.4	A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	No	The Company does not have a majority of independent Directors. The Directors considered to be independent are David Brookes and Anna Lavelle. Given the size of the Board and the nature and scale of the Company's operations, the Board believes that its current composition, with only two independent Directors, is sufficient.

Recommendation		Comply	Comment
2.5	The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	No	The Chairman of the Board and the CEO roles are separated. However, the Chair, Paul MacLeman, is not an independent Director for the reasons noted in 2.3 above. The Board of the Directors felt that in light of the unprecedented circumstances related to the current pandemic and inability of the CEO to travel from the US, that it would be appropriate for the Chairman to assume some executive duties. The Board will review the need for this as an ongoing process.
2.6	A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake professional development to maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee is responsible for approving and reviewing induction and continuing professional development programs and procedures for Directors to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities. The Board Charter provides for the Company Secretary to facilitate the induction and professional development of Directors.
Principle 3: Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly A listed entity should instil and continually reinforce a culture across the organisation of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly.
3.1	A listed entity should articulate and disclose its values.	Yes	The Company outlines within its Corporate Code of Conduct its five core values being; commitment, respect, integrity, solidarity and putting patients first. The purpose of our values are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) To strive to deliver maximum shareholder value through the development of novel antiviral treatments whilst acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly. b) To pursue operational and commercial excellence by using best practice approaches in our decision making process focusing on continuous development, accountability and teamwork in all aspects of our business. A key attribute to this approach is maintaining responsible long-term management. c) To ensure our employees and business partners have the appropriate skills and resources to perform their work effectively and efficiently and that all stakeholders (including investors, customers, suppliers and regulators) are aware of the Company's values and our intention to uphold them. To ensure our employees do so while acting honestly and adhering to the highest ethical standards while remaining in compliance with all relevant legal requirements. d) To foster an open and supportive environment in all activities and relationships and make sure that our senior executives demonstrate and reinforce our values in all aspects of our business and in all interactions with staff. e) To cement a positive reputation for the Company in the community as a reliable, responsible and ethical organisation.

Principle 4: Safeguard the integrity of corporate reports

A listed entity should have appropriate processes to verify the integrity of its corporate reports.

4.1 A Board of a listed entity should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) have an audit committee which: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board. and disclose <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner. 	Yes	The Board has established an Audit and Risk Committee to oversee the management of financial, external and internal risks. The Audit and Risk Committee is governed by an Audit and Risk Committee Charter. The Audit and Risk Committee is comprised of the three Directors, David Brookes, Anna Lavelle and Paul MacLeman, with Paul MacLeman the only Committee member not considered to be an independent Director. The Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee, David Brookes, is an independent Director who is not the Chairman of the Board. In addition to the Audit and Risk Committee members, the CFO, Company Secretary and external auditor attend Audit and Risk Committee meetings. Members' qualifications and experience, together with the number of meetings held during the financial year are set out in the Company's 2021 Annual Report.

4.2 The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	The Board, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receives from its CEO and CFO a declaration provided in accordance with Section 295A of the Corporations Act that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
4.3 A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.	Yes	In reviewing the quarterly cashflow reports and prior to the lodgement with the ASX, the following process has been adopted: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • cash transactions for the quarter are provided by the accountant to the Chief Financial Officer; • cash transactions are matched against the bank statements; and • consolidated quarterly figures are compiled and verified by the CFO and CEO. A declaration is then provided by the CEO and CFO to the Board noting compliance with section 286 of the Corporations Act 2001, the appropriate accounting standards and with Listing Rule 19.11A.
Principle 5: Make timely and balanced disclosure A listed entity should make timely and balanced disclosure of all matters concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities
5.1 A listed entity should have and disclose a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under listing rule 3.1.	Yes	The Company has in place a written policy on information disclosure and relevant procedures. The focus of these procedures is on continuous disclosure compliance and improving access to information for investors. The Company Secretary is responsible for: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) overseeing and co-ordinating disclosure of information to the relevant stock exchanges and shareholders; and (b) providing guidance to Directors and employees on disclosure requirements and procedures. Price sensitive information is publicly released through ASX before it is disclosed to shareholders and market participants. Distribution of other information to shareholders and market participants is also managed through disclosure to the ASX. Information is posted on the Company's website after the ASX confirms an announcement has been made, with the aim of making the information readily accessible to the widest audience.
5.2 A listed entity should ensure that its board receives copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made.	Yes	All material market announcements are circulated to and reviewed by all members of the Board. All announcements are clearly noted as to the authorising officer and in general, all announcements are authorised for release by the Board.
